PROCLAMATION

By REUBEN E. FENTON, Governor of the State of New York.

Through the favor of Almighty God, another year of prosperity has been granted to the people of this commonwealth. From the ocean to the lakes, the earth has brought forth the grain and the fruits adapted to the use of man. Our manufactures and commerce have gathered an increase of power; our means of communication, with the whole American people have been extended, and through Divine assistance the ocean has been spanned and the two continents are united as perpetual neighbors.

The skill and industry of our people through the favor of Providence, have kept the pestilence at bay, and saved our crowded cities from the calamities of other lands. Order and law have reigned supreme: population has increased; and in all ways the State of New York has been led along her old paths to greatness, not by the hand of God.

The year has witnessed the advancement of great plans for the mental and spiritual elevation of the people. Men who have been favored with wealth have been moved to endow noble universities; the education of the children of the State in the Common Schools has not been neglected; every religious denomination has heard the call of God to work harder for the salvation of men, and philanthropy has exerted increased power and put forth new agencies for lifting up the poor, the ignorant, and the oppressed.

In the progress of the great political reconstruction of our country, the people of this commonwealth mindful of the momentous obligations of the first Republican State in the American Union, have calmly met and consulted, on all appropriate occasions, on the various questions which so deeply affect the common good. In these discussions on these vast themes, and in giving expression to our purposes and convictions, they have never failed to uphold the constitutional law, and adhesion to the spirit of civil liberty, worthy of the founders of the Republic.

In the midst of blessings like these, we are liable to forget that what trials and sacrifices the great work has been wrought out. Let us then dedicate one day to General Thanksgiving and Praise, that we may be prepared to enter upon a new year with larger views of our duties, and a more determined consecration to the cause of human rights and more devout obedience to the will of God. To this end I respectfully designate and appoint Thursday, the 29th day of November next; and I do recommend a suspending all ordinary business, and that on that day people assemble in their respective places of worship, engaging in such religious exercises as shall most fitly express the sense of dependence, obligation and gratitude, with which the blessing of the past year should profoundly impress our minds.

In witness whereof I have hereunto signed my name and affixed the privy seal of the State, at the city of Albany, on this twenty-second day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

REUBEN E. FENTON.

By the Governor.
GEORGE S. HASTINGS,
Private Secretary.

Burglary in Harmony.—

The house of Mr. E. C. NORTON, in the north part of the town of Harmony, was entered on Sunday night Oct. 14, (it is supposed) and $400 stolen from the trunk of DANL. PECK, a young man living at Mr. N's. The family was absent caring for Miss SEYMOUR who had been hurt by a runaway accident, (elsewhere narrated.) The loss is severe on Mr. P. who is a hard-working, steady young man and earned the money by severe efforts. No clue to the thief.

Improvement at Sherman.—

The Congregational Church and Society at Sherman View are remodeling and enlarging the house of worship. The old gallery is taken out and an addition to its size is made, the building is painted and the whole interior is modernized and improved. The project was inaugurated in view of the growing wants of the village and community, and is being carried forward with a spirit and energy that will insure its speedy completion.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—When a lady would compose her mouth to a proper and graceful contract, she puts it just before entering the room, say "bosom," and keep the expression into which the mouth subsides until the desired effect upon the company is evident. If, on the other hand, she wishes to assume a distinguished and somewhat noble bearing, not suggestive of sweetness, she should say "brush," the result of which is infallible. If she would make her mouth look small and needs enlarging, she must say "cabbage." If she wishes to look mournful, she must say "kerchunk."

[Olean Advertiser.

To finish the list: If she wishes to look virtuously indignant and mortified although she had encountered some low fellow she should say "Jim Henry." If it is desirable to put on an air of disgust and annoyance let her say "Olean Advertiser." Or even the bare thoughts of these might work her into a "holy horror."

Fatal Accident in Harmony.—

On Saturday the 13th inst. a fine young man named Seymour Moravia, son of Mr. Moravia, of this town, met with a fatal injury. The particulars are as follows: It appears that young Seymour was driving a team of young horses, and when near the house of Mr. Moore, in this town, the team became frightened and ran, throwing Mr. Seymour from the wagon and breaking his arm and leg. The team was a remarkably quiet one and no cause except their extreme youth can be attributed for the accident.

Accidental Death by Poison in Ellicott.—

HENRY FAITA died at the house of C. C. CHAPPEL, in Clymer village, last Saturday evening from the effects of poison. We are at Corry, Pa., (where he was born) been informed that he had accidentally swallowed through a mistake a powerful corrosive sublimate. He was taken to Clymer and, after lingering in terrible agony, from which science and friendly care could afford no relief, died on the 20th. His remains were interred at Clymer. The deceased is spoken of as a young man of promise who leaves many friends to mourn his untimely demise and cherish his memory.

A GRAND RALLY

Of the people of Chautauqua County, in the Evangelical Church in the Village of

JAMESTOWN,

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1866,

at 2 o'clock and 7 o'clock P. M. The following eminent and eloquent orators are to be present and speak to the people:

GOVERNOR R. E. FENTON,

the standard bearer of our cause, and the tried apostle of freedom, will address his friends and neighbors.

Let our honored fellow citizen receive a grand welcome home, from the lips of the Chief Magistrate of the Empire State.

HON. HANNIBAL HAMLIN,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S Vice President, the pure, patriotic and noble statesman, whom Johnson's bribery could not buy, and who refused to remain in office under the treacherous, base Executive. All who love manly independence, the impeachable virtue and eloquent oratory, should hear HANNIBAL HAMLIN.

GOV. ANDREW C. CURTIN, of Pennsylvania, the true, tried and loved "Soldiers' Friend," the champion of soldiers' rights and minister to soldiers' wants. All who love our noble boys in blue and the cause they fought for, will turn out to greet and honor their best friend, their friend in need.

The different Towns in Chautauqua and Cattaraugus are invited to gather their whole population in delegations, with music, banners and flags, and come out in all the might of freemen who are devoted to their freedom and dare maintain it alike against the assaults of armed traitors, the plots of their sympathizers and the threats of a perjured, false President in their interests.

Rally for the cause of Equal Representation for all States! Equal Rights for all men! Sacredness of the Union War Debt! No power for perjured Traitors! Let us show Andrew Johnson that we know that we have a right to demand these just and merciful terms, and that we dare insist on them!

Warren & Dunkirk R. R. Meeting.—

Pursuant to previous notice, a meeting of gentlemen from the several towns along the proposed road from the Pennsylvania State line to Dunkirk, connecting Warren and the coal, oil and mineral interests with Dunkirk, was held at the Johnson House, Fredonia, on Friday, Oct. 19, at 2 P. M. to consider the question of organization.

Dr. Abel Gunn of Ellicott was called to the chair, and C. E. Benton and W. M. Kortright were Secretaries.

Geo. Barker Esq., explained the objects of the meeting, and the discussion of the points which accompany and would be helpful to the project followed. He estimated the cost when put in running order at $800,000, and that, in his opinion, it would be impracticable to rely on individual subscription for the raising of the amount, but that it be effected mainly by town action. The road was for the benefit of no particular individual or section, although some would undoubtedly derive greater benefits than others, but that every farmer and property owner from Lake Erie to the Allegany River would be benefitted. All should feel interested.

He was followed from Messrs. Bookstaver, Williams and Clark, of Dunkirk, Langworthy and Copp of Charlotte, Moon, Lizell's and Phillips of Stockton, Falconer of Ellicott, and Wilson of Gerry, who coincided in representing the general sentiment of their respective towns as favorable to the speedy construction of the road.

Mr. Barker, to test the sense of those present, moved the following resolution:

Resolved That this meeting regards the project of building a railroad from the Pennsylvania State line to Dunkirk, and the connections along the route, as being of interest, and the expression of sentiment in favor of such a work warrant and advise the organization of a company. Adopted.

Dr. Williams of Dunkirk moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft articles of association for the organization of a stock company. Carried, and Messrs Geo Barker, Wm. Bookstaver and Orson Stiles were named as such committee, and to report at the next meeting.

Dr. Williams then moved the appointment of a committee in each town along the route as first co-operating committees, to procure signatures for a stock company and stock subscription in their respective towns, and to report at the next meeting. Adopted, and the following committees named:

Dunkirk—Wm. Bookstaver, B.W. Clark, L. Fraser.
Pomfret—Thos. L. Higgins, Wm. Moon, Horace White.
Stockton—E. Moon, T.D. Phillips, Forbes Johnson, Chauncey Warren.
Charlotte—T. D. Copp & Langworthy, G. S. Harrison.
Gerry—N. J. Wilson, S. E. Palmer, Franklin H. Dewanson.
Ellicott—Patrick Falconer, W. E. Jones, Lewis Hall.
Carroll—W. H. Fenton, John Myers, Edward Snowden.
Kiantone—Wellington Woodward, Addison J. Phillips, W. D. weeks

On motion of Wm. Bookstaver, it was Resolved That the County papers be requested to publish the proceedings of the meeting.

On motion of A. Langworthy the meeting adjourned to meet at Jamestown, on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 1 P. M., and that the committees above named then report, and an organization consummated.

PATRICK FALCONER, Pres't.

—JUDSON & INGERSOLL, of Brocton, have our thanks for a box of excellent Isabella grapes.

—MR. EVERSON HALE, of Ellery, has left here Cabbages at our office weighing 15 lbs., all of which grew from one stalk. It is a singular freak of nature.

—A horse ran away last Saturday at the foot of Main Street and threw out all the occupants of the vehicle, bruising but not seriously injuring them. They were Mrs. ISAAC MOORE, Mrs. M. M. MOORE and daughter, of this place. The cars frightened the horse.

—The firm of ALLEN, PETERSON & SCHMIDT, Piano Manufacturers, foot of Main St., has been dissolved MARSHALL B. ALLEN going out and leaving the business in the hands of the other two.—"MARSH" is a wide awake, enterprising young business man and we hope he will "join the firm" again in Jamestown somewhere.

—The PEAK FAMILY perform in this place next week Wednesday and Thursday Evenings, at Jones Hall. It is some years since they visited this place; since then they have been re-enforced by the celebrated BROWN FAMILY, and the combination now is said to be the greatest one traveling. They introduce many novelties besides their sweet ballad music and present an attractive bill.

SOLDIERS' MEETING.

Proceedings of a meeting held in Brocton, N. Y., Oct. 3, 1866, by the members of Co. E. 154th N. Y. Vol.

The meeting was called to order by Capt. J. B. Fay, the original Captain of the Company, and organized by calling Capt. J. M. Gallagher who succeeded Capt. Fay, to the chair, and Newell Burch Secretary.

Upon motion of Capt. Fay, a committee of three, consisting of Sergt. Case, Charles W. Abell and Thos. K. Bambrick was appointed to draft a series of resolutions for the organization of the meeting.

Remarks were then offered by Capt. Gallagher, Maj. Benson, Capt. Weld and Capt. Fay, after which the committee on Resolutions reported the following:

Resolved, That this association shall be known as the Reorganized Union of Co. E. 154th, N. Y. Vol. That the officers shall consist of a President a Vice-President and two Vice-Presidents for each of the following towns, Portland, Ripley and Westfield, and a Secretary.

Resolved, That the term of office for all the officers shall be for one year, and that they be elected by a plurality vote of the company. That it shall be the duty of the President to preside at the meeting of the company, and otherwise superintend and direct the business of the same.

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Vice-President to act as a committee in their towns. They shall be the channel through which all business, relating to the Company, shall pass, and they shall keep duly informed as to the residence of the several members, and in case of the death or change of residence, shall communicate the same to the Secretary. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary, to receive and answer all letters and communications connected with the business of the Company, and also to keep a list of all members of the Company who may now, or who shall hereafter reside out of the state of Pennsylvania, with a view to the sure and speedy communication with said members.

Resolved, That in case of the death of any of its members, this company pledges itself to attend the funeral in a body.

Resolved, That the regular meetings of the Company shall take place on the 20 day of Oct. in each year, at the hour of one o'clock P. M., and that the President and Vice-President, shall have power to appoint the place of meeting. That the President shall have power to call an extra meeting of the Company when he may deem it necessary.

All of which were unanimously adopted.

Capt. J. B. Fay, was then elected President for the ensuing year, and Capt. J. M. Gallagher Vice-President. Lieut. McDade, H. Lockwood, Wm. O. Case, J. W. Porter, J. B. Haywood and Thos. K. Bambrick, were chosen Vice-Presidents, and C. W. Abell, Secretary.

Rev. Mr. Smith was then introduced, who addressed the meeting in an able and lengthy discourse, for which he received the unanimous thanks of the meeting.

Capt. Gallagher was then called upon to read the muster roll of the Company, which elicited much interest and feeling, as each of the present and absent were accounted for, and the names of fallen comrades listened to in silence. The recapitulation discovered a melancholy depletion in numbers.

Deacon May then addressed the meeting. Then followed Maj. Benson, who, in his beautiful and characteristic style, was listened to in deepest silence. He spoke eloquently and with feeling of those who entered the service, in defence of common rights, but who were stricken down by the rigors of war.

A committee was then appointed to draft resolutions in regard to the same. The committee thus appointed reported the following:

WHEREAS, many a dear comrade fell in the conflict—in the front of battle, by the hand of a treacherous foe, and the rigors of Southern prisons, we, the survivors, willing to hand down many virtues and remembering their hard death, do resolve

1st. That we, the members of Co. E. 154th N. Y. Vols., and the greatest joy of this our Reunion, earth with tongues of fire of sadness to the memory of our fallen brothers, whose names have been stricken from the roll of our command, to the sunning rolls of the martyrs. Immortal is great sacrifice, liberty cannot be dear, if it is not. They lived like men, and died like men.

2d. That we, the survivors, who served our country's home, and maintain the sacred independence, and the flag which our comrades died with, that while living we have, and will ever be, so many glorious memories, we cannot forget the cause in which they fell, that our duty as we live shall be to perpetuate the liberties won through such terrible sacrifices.

3d. That the widows, orphans and kindred of our fallen comrades, have all the full sympathy of soldiers' hearts, that as our friends and neighbors we will cheer, help, and protect them. Well we know the deep anguish of the hearts, we shed more or grief in view of the happiness of surviving friends. To alleviate their misfortunes, to soften the pangs of memory, and to make their lives as pleasant as in us lies, shall be our highest duty.

4th. That the press of Cattaraugus and Chautauqua County, are respectfully requested to the soldiers, be invited to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

The meeting then partook of a hearty supper, which was well relished with intervening toasts, by Maj. Benson, Capt. Weld, Capt. Gallagher and our worthy President, after which the meeting adjourned to meet at Ripley, Oct. 24, 1867.

CAPT. J. B. FAY, Pres.

County News.

—JOHN ROBINSON's house, three miles west of Mayville took fire and came near being desroyed last Monday; they put it out. See Sentinel.

—On Sunday (14th) Z. Slater's team in Chautauqua ran away with his family. A boy had his arm broken in two places and his elbow dislocated; a little girl received some bruises. The rest escaped unhurt. See Sentinel.

—A terrible fire has been raging in the woods in the south east portion of Charlotte for some days. Several hundred acres of land have been burnt over, and a vast amount of valuable timber destroyed.—[Dem.

—Rev. WM. F. DAY of this place lectures in the M. E. Church at Busti Corners next Tuesday Evening on the subject of "Mirthfulness." An admission fee of 20 cts. is to be charged for the purpose of making needed repairs in the Church at Busti. The people of that section will hear a very fine lecture and at the same time aid a deserving cause by attending.

Court Proceedings.—

The Court of Sessions at Mayville last week disposed of a large amount of business—mainly owing to the energy and ability of Dist. Attorney Scott. We give the Sentinel's summary of the criminal business:

A. Becker plead guilty to an indictment for fishing with a spear in Chautauqua Lake, and was fined $5.

Patrick Murphy plead guilty to selling liquor without a license and was fined $50.

Joseph Rice plead guilty to selling liquor without a license and was fined $50.

Robert H. Young plead guilty to assault and battery and was fined $10.

Peter Hopson was tried for burglary in breaking into Mr. Griffith's house in Ellery, found guilty and sentenced to Auburn for 3 years. The Sheriff was ordered to hold the prisoner to give prisoner's counsel time to move a new trial of the case.

John Cooper plead guilty to assault and battery and was sentenced to jail for 20 days and to pay a fine of $30.

Horatio L. Parsons, tried for stealing a horse, found guilty and sentenced to Auburn 1 year.

Willoughby Potter, tried for burglary and larceny, convicted of petit larceny and sentenced to jail 6 months.

Ralph Sweet plead guilty on an indictment for illicit distillation and was fined $10.

Wm. L. Welch was tried on an indictment for grand larceny and the jury found him guilty of petit larceny. Sentenced to jail for 6 months and fined $50.

Charles W. Foster, tried for selling liquor without a license. After hearing the testimony for the People, Judge Cook directed the jury to find for defendant.

August Gunnison tried for assault with intent to kill, convicted and sent to Auburn for one year.

Frederick Hughes tried for assault with deadly weapon, convicted and sentenced to jail for six months, and to pay a fine of $250.

George Merrison, Melissa Young and George Moore were discharged from jail.

It is but justice of District Attorney Scott to say that no District Attorney has ever more fearlessly discharged the duties of that office than he did at the late term, or been more successful in the prosecution of criminals. All his cases were well prepared and most ably tried.

The Court holds an adjourned term on the 13th of November.

Ten Years' Pastorate.—

The Rev. T. H. REESE preached his Tenth Anniversary sermon as pastor of the Congregational Church at this place, last Sabbath Oct. 21. In the ten years ministry he has delivered over 1,000 discourses, attended 200 funerals and above 100 weddings. There have been added to his church 142 members, of whom 80 were on profession of their faith, 43 have been dismissed and 20 died. He has baptized 71 persons—29 adults and 42 infants. His church numbers 220. They have recently increased his salary to $1100, and are preparing to erect a new church edifice in the Spring. It is simple justice to add that the zeal and devotion of Mr. REESE in the Christian ministry have won for him the unbounded love and confidence of his parishioners, while his sincerity, courtesy and kindness of manners have attracted the respect and esteem of the community at large. No man enjoys more of the regard of the non-professing community than he. May he be spared to continue among this people long be continued among this people.

The County House and Farm.—

The instincts of humanity and the dictates of self-interest would, both, lead the people of this County to wish to know that the management of affairs at our County House and farm is humane and judicious. We pay over $[illegible] per annum for support of the County House, and the taxpayers are ought to be informed whether that sum is well expended or not. The comfort of the unfortunate poor, whole every humanitarian is anxious to know, and those who are throwing their money into the hands of charities. It is to satisfy this natural and laudable curiosity that we write.

It is the duty of the Supervisors to both inspect the reports of the Superintendents of the Poor and to visit the County House and Farm. This they do each year. From the report of the Superintendents, this year, it seems that affairs are at least economically managed, for the board of each pauper is reduced to the low expense to the people of eighty-five cents per week. So far, good.

The annual visit of the Supervisors is always a pleasant one; we have often heard people say that they took the reports made at that time cum grano salis, as everything tended to give the best impression; a desire has often been expressed to hear an impartial report of unofficial, unexpected visits made at other times besides the regular appointment of the board. To gratify this we have at two different times during the present season been to the County House and made more-than-usually close inspection of affairs—as any one may do, the institution being always open to public examination and all visitors being uniformly and at all times received with courtesy and invited to investigate as closely as they wish.

It gives us pleasure to give as our impression of the affairs from these unannounced visits, a commendation even higher than is annually bestowed by the Supervisors. We are satisfied that no effort is made to cover defects and "put the best side out" to the Supervisors; but that, as they see the County House each autumn so they might see it any day in the year. In a word, we found the same scrupulous neatness in every room, ward, cell and outhouse of the whole establishment, the same humane provisions for the health and comfort of the paupers; the same kind watchful care of those unfortunate, pitiful wards of public philanthropy—the poor whose souls the lamp of reason no more illuminates; the same well-kept farm and orderly fields and thrifty stock that each year is so much commended by the official visitors and inspectors.

This article is not for the purpose of "puffing" any one, but as we said before to satisfy the people as to the regular, daily conduct of an institution which they pay so heavily to support. We are fully convinced that kindness and economy are combined in the management of Mr. WOOD, and his wife and daughter and that vigilance and prudence are exercised by the Superintendents in expending the large sums placed at their disposal. We ought to add, that to those who know Mr. WOOD and his family, their character is an assurance in addition to our testimony that the poor are kindly treated and humanely managed.

Neighboring New York Casualties.

—Jas Whitford near Hollenbeckville, was killed last Monday by a fall from a swing iron a load on which he was young. He was about 18 years old.

—Jas Hoggins, Mansfield, Catt. Co lost his house and part of its contents by fire last Sunday afternoon. Defective chimney; no insurance.

—Something has happened to the Wellsville (Allegany Co.,) Free Press. It has begun to swell and is now much larger than we have here to see it and its continuance shines with a new and beautiful appearance such as few country newspapers can put on. We rejoice to see it.

—On Monday night part of an oil train ran down a grade at Hinsdaleville and collided with another train. Two tanks burst the oil caught fire, and burned up four cars of a load four cars, 8 of the side of the track, with their contents. One man got some serious burns. So the Tribune says.

—Edward Price, of Salamanca, last week got drunk and abused his wife. She left him and sent her son E. J. Price, a young man, after her clothing. His father fled upon him and cut his throat to the breast so that no hopes are entertained of his recovery. The old man is tried to assault another young man, a friend of his son, with a hammer. The assault has been committed to await the Grand Jury's sitting. The Randolph Register has the account.

—But a few days since, there passed through our quiet vill ge an elderly looking, elderly gentleman. He was hereonly a short time, but suspicion fastened on him. Some of our citizens thought the clothes he wore (a cat which signified something, and the morning he left, quite a number were perfectly sure that Lyons—somebody. In fact one man said he could hear folks talk them morning, that that man was from somewhere and that he was somebody in disguise." He registered his name as A. Burner from Blank, destination home. It is strange that one man should so disturb the peace of a whole community.—[Randolph Reg.

—A monument was dedicated to the Indian Chief "CORNPLANTER" last week Thursday, on the banks of the Allegany river a few miles above Warren. The Mail describes the monument and ceremonies as follows:

The monument erected, is placed in a conspicuous part of the ground, having a base of sand stone, one and a half feet high, the base is of marble, together with the die and shaft, making eleven and a half feet of marble. The whole is surmounted by an urn cap. Upon the North side of the monument is very beautifully engraved the name and inscription:

"CORNPLANTER, THE GREAT SENECA
JOHN CHAIN, alias CORNPLANTER, DIED
at Cornplanter Town, Feb. 18, A. D. 1836, Aged about 100 years."

Upon the west side is the following inscription:

"Chief of the Seneca Tribe, and a principal Chief of the six Nations, from the period of the Revolutionary war, to the time of his death. Distinguished for talent, courage, eloquence, sobriety, and love for his tribe and race, to whose welfare he devoted his time, his energies and his means, during a long and eventful life."

Upon the south side is the following:

"Erected by authority of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, by Act passed March, A. D. 1866."

The assemblage was called to order by Hon. S. P. Lyon, who made a few prefatory remarks, which were interpreted by Harrison Halftown, from the Allegheny Reservation. A prayer was offered by the Rev. W. A. Rankin, Chaplain of the 49th, after which a very able address was delivered by Hon. James S. Snowden of Philadelphia. Then followed an address by Rev. W. A. Rankin, a few other remarks were made by some of the Seneca present.

On Thursday Oct. 18 a singing on the Congregational Church at Sherman Village (which is being nicely fitted up) and three men were injured, one of them fatally. Dea. CHAS. HAWLEY was injured, it is feared serious; WM. H. HART and Jos. HART were bruised but no bones broken. The Congregation deplore this, but could be especially calamitous if it results in the removal of Dea. H. from his sphere of influence and usefulness.

Book Notices.

A LIBERAL OFFER.—The publishers of THE GALAXY, the new fortnightly magazine, announce that they will give to each purchaser of the number of that magazine for Nov. 1st, which is now ready, a handsome illustrated pamphlet book of 165 octavo pages, containing the first twenty-six chapters of "The Claverings," Anthony Trollope's latest and best novel. "The Claverings" is appearing in THE GALAXY simultaneously with its publication in England, and will soon be completed. The book given away is equal in size and typography to novels which are ordinarily sold for 75 cents. THE GALAXY for November 1st, with "The Claverings" extra, may be obtained at the leading newsdealers', or the magazine and the book will be sent by the publishers on receipt of 30 cents. Address W. C. & F. P. CHURCH, No. 39 Park Row, New York. 1w

THE AMERICAN FARMER.—The American Farmer for October is just received, and, as usual, is full of good things. In fact, it is just the paper that every farmer should take, and is well worthy of the designation—"The Practical Farmer, Own Paper." The subscription price is only $1.00 a year, and all who subscribe at this time for 1867, get the remaining three months of this year for nothing. Address, Rochester, New York.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.—The November number of "Our Young folks", Ticknor & Fields publishers, is on our table. Its stories are characterized by a purity of tone and beauty of expression that makes them peculiarly interesting. Its well deserved popularity is no doubt chiefly due to the judicious selection of popular writers who regularly contribute to its pages, and to the tasty mechanical excellence of its typography and illustrations. Its prospectus for 1867 offers excellent inducements in the shape of prizes to those who succeed in making up clubs of twenty-five or more subscribers. For sale by all Bookseellers and News Dealers.
