"Incongruous, Wasteful and Inharmonious"

The Dunkirk Union takes great offense at our calling the state of educational affairs at Dunkirk "incongruous, wasteful and inharmonious," and says "we point to the schools as one of the most wicked and unnecessary assumptions of falsehood we have ever seen. Tolerably strong, that. Let's see about it. We undertake to prove it by the Union itself. It says

There were, as we stated 840 scholars attending our public schools during the winter term. In addition to these there were some 400 scholars attending private or sectarian schools. Mrs. Bates has had a school of, perhaps, 40 scholars Miss Norman 20 Miss Bradley, 30 the Sisters of Charity, Catholics—from 200 to 250 children under their executive control; St. George Church German Catholic—about 100 Lutheran Church school about 70

Now, we submit that we have such a variety of schools so well and inoffensively as not under one system, standard, mixed not. Certainly there is a loss in the aggregate. Keeping up such a lot of schools. Every educational man knows that the best way to educate children is by a system of schools under one management The same money that is used in Dunkirk at present, if all put into the hands of the Board of Education, (which we know to be an efficient, zealous Board,) would educate 50 per centum more of scholars than it does while scattered, diffused in half a dozen directions It is not economical; it is "wasteful." All those people outside of its public free schools are wasting their means, if they only knew it. All classes would be better served for less money by heartily uniting their means and efforts.

We used "inharmonious" not in the sense of discord, but as describing a lack of uniformity of system and unity of efforts, a lack of adaptation of parts to each other of connection together. Harmony does not in the first sense mean union in spirit, but in parts and nature.

We still contend that "incongruous, wasteful and inharmonious" justly describe the state of affairs depicted by the Union. That paper has evidently suffered a premature discharge. Our remarks were directed to the state of educational matters in Dunkirk as a whole, not to the Board of Education as it may have thoughtlessly concluded. The Union will represent us correctly. We were shooting at all those factional schools. They take 400 scholars away from the public schools, and must have an influence to keep many others out of all schools, for the total figures only make about 1,250 scholars for a population of (say) 9,000. These Dutch and Irish populations are not so poor in babies as these figures indicate. You must be educating two or three hundred children in the streets. The Union further says "These scholars have not been withheld from our public schools because the public schools were sectarian or inefficient." We are glad to know and publish this. The fault of an uniform, uneconomical, and disunited "state of educational affairs at Dunkirk" doubtless lies with those outside private and sectarian schools. We do wish it were different whether the Union thinks us a liar or not.

To Whom it May Concern.—

This paper is in daily receipt of "Assignees Notice of Appointment," "Notices in Bankruptcy," &c., from lawyers and others who are entire strangers to us, without the necessary stamps to pay for advertising. Hereafter no attention will be paid to such notices from any parties except the regularly appointed U. S. Marshalls, unless accompanied by a sufficient amount to pay for two folios the required length of time

Local in the Small.

—The Annual Renting of the Pews in St. Lukes Church, will be held at the Church Monday Eve., 7½ o'clock, April 13, 1868

—The Third Soiree of the Philharmonic Society for the Honorary Members takes place this Thursday Evening at their hall on 3d St.

—We are indebted to Hon W. S. Cameron for a Red Book for 1868 to Hon H Van Aernam for valuable congressional documents

—The Tidioute Journal is engaged in a lively mill with the Warren Ledger. We wonder at the Journal's taste in sparring with a skunk

—Our suggestion to attach a hammer for fire alarms to the bell of the town clock meets with general favorable comment It would cost but little The Village Trustees should order it done.

—The Titusville Herald is getting aristocratic and comes out with tinted paper The effect is quite novel The paper is made at a new mill just started there Where is the Jamestown Paper Mill?

—Sawdey & Field's card is in place in a broadside in our columns this week, concerning their new Dry Goods and Carpetings and the wonderous low prices thereof No. 7 is a good place to go for all these things

—It is worth while to any gentleman who wants a stylish garment and a good fit to look in at Broadhead & Son's They have just in a large stock of cloths Read their peculiar matrimonial card on the 3d page

—Prof Agassiz says there is no food more beneficial to the brain than fish, on account of the phosphorus contained in them We commend a fish diet to the editor of the Democrat if it has any effect

—Wm Newman, Attorney, has removed his office to the rooms formerly occupied by H. D. Lakin in the Jones Block Justice Lewis has also removed to the same rooms These departments [illegible] should give them a call.

Business Changes.—

The Carriage making firm of Burlin, Eddy & Co. 2d St is dissolved Mr B H Burlin goes out and the two partners continue the business in the same place under the firm name of Eddy & Davis—L. H. W. Eddy and A. C. Davis They are both young men and will maintain the established character of the house for enterprise and reliable work. Mr Burlin also a young Jamestown man, we hope to see soon engaged in business again here

—The style of the Woolen Factory firm from which Mr D H Crandall has retired as mentioned two weeks since is to be Allen, Preston & Co. The partners are A F Allen, Jerome Preston, Lewis Andrews and W A Bradshaw the last named was mistakenly left out of the list in the former mention

"Unknown" Base Ball Club.—

Board of Directors—George R. Smith, Horace Fox and Henry Pinner

"Obsequiousness"—True Business Ethics.—

It is stated that the Clean Advertiser is to be removed to Jamestown. The Advertiser is of the Vallandigham, Fernando Wood Democracy and finding the soil of Cattaraugus County uncongenial to its growth, has concluded to migrate to Chautauqua County The Jamestown Journal meets its advances very much in the style that the boy, at Mrs Havisham's met Pip in Dickens' story of "Great Expectations" We trust, however, that it will not give its neighbor over the way the opportunity to exult as Estelle did over the many hard knocks and knock downs Pip gave the flourishing boy The Journal is quite obsequious toward one from whom it has received so many cuffs and kicks

[Westfield Republican.

There is a class of small bored intellects which have no comprehension of a large mind of principles coupled with courtesy of manners. Such souls know of no way of combating a man's principles except to attack the man himself, they cannot conceive of differences of opinion in business with anything but jealousy, small hatred and petty spite Any other spirit towards an opponent is foreign to their comprehension. Chivalry is not to them a nature as natural as light.

Suppose we had done as the Republican evidently would, villified Mr Henry and denounced him as a late in alliance That would have helped him and his paper. So we [illegible] start with. It is not decent. There are [illegible] who have taken and read the Journal for years We trust [illegible] that Republican [illegible] Mr Hazeltine [illegible]

The American Cooking Stove.

This Stove has again been awarded two premiums at our state fair at Buffalo, one for coal and one for wood. We are gratified to announce the unparalleled result of this stove having taken the first premium at the New York State Fairs for the last six consecutive years, notwithstanding it has been brought in competition with all the best stoves made in the State and many from other States, and notwithstanding the persistent, combined and determined efforts of 11 competitors to defeat it. And its success is not alone confined to this State. On the 19th of September it was awarded two first premiums at the New Jersey State Fair and has also been awarded the first premium at the Pennsylvania State Fair, and has never been exhibited at a State Fair and failed to take the first premium, and the premiums it has taken at county fairs are too numerous to mention. These awards are fully endorsed by the people throughout the Country. Its name has become a household word from Maine to California, and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, and the demand has become so large that notwithstanding our large and increased facilities for manufacturing, we are unable to supply the demand promptly.

Butter is firmer, owing to the thirty-sixth snow storm and the attending cold snap, which has lessened receipts, but we take it that it is a forerunner to an early spring, more butter, and lower prices. We would caution buyers in the country to keep cool and not get excited, even though a firmer feeling and a trifle advance in prices prevails here, for it will be of short duration, as the Northern counties are beginning to send in their new, white fresh butter, and oils have been sold at 47 to 48c, others to-day brought 50c in welch tubs. Such has to be sold for what it will bring upon arrival, which tends to depress the prices of better grades of Chautauqua, Cheenango and Delaware counties. We would advise prompt and early shipments The receipts for the week, old and new, amount to 4,915 packages. Cheese remains firm, and all straight lots are promply taken for shipment at 16½c—some extra at 17c. The most desirable sizes are 60 to 75 pounds, net. The amount of cheese consumed annually in Great Britain is 309,000,000 pounds; in the United States, 160,000,000. The product of the two countries is 394,000,000 pounds, so you can see where your cheese go to. The receipts for the week amount to 14,675 boxes.
