The Result of the Vermont Election.

We had hoped before this to have given the exact vote in the several towns in the State for Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Treasurer; but the remissness of the State press generally, ourselves among the number, in making arrangements for reporting the vote for State officers, has given no one an opportunity to accurately report the precise majority. The election of the Republican candidates having been expected, the people have failed to poll a full vote and there has been much lack on the part of the press in making efforts to give the returns, as it is their duty to do. This has led the papers of other States to criticise somewhat sharply the fallure of the Vermont papers to give them but an indefinite idea of the result of the canvass. These strictures are in the main deserved, and It should be remembered that of the people of Vermont feel no interest in the result of the election, that the citizens of other States feel a deep interest in knowing what has been done by the figures.

The returns of 190 towns show that the vote for Governor, was

Ed wards. 8,983

Majority for Page, 18,097 The remaining towns will of course increase this majority. Last year Governor Dillingham's majority was 22 822; In 1865 he had 18,729 majority; in 1864 the Republican majority was 18 977 on Governor, and 22,972 on President. From this summary, it will at a glance be seen that the vote of Vermont has been variable, not from any change of political opinions from year to year, but resulting from the apathy of the people. knowing the final result to be sure, and at times it has been increased by heated strifes in town and Congressional elections. The vote of Vermont is not decreased by any change of political opinions, but the failure of the people to go to the polls as they would have done in a heated political or local contest, or at the Presidential election.

The returns have been reported for representatives from 231 towns which give the following classification

Union, Democrat

This leaves nine towns to be heard from, which will increase the Union vote. Of the twenty two Democrats elected to the House, ten of them are chosen from Union Republican towns, which give nearly 400 majority for Page, and in two of these their election will be contested. There are eleven towns in which not a Democratic vote was cast. The House last year was Republican 224, to 13

There are lessons to be learned from this election: That notwithstanding the Republican party is strong, it is unwise and injudicious to allow local questions and personal differences to divide the party. The safe course is to uniformly maintain harmony in our ranks in relation to both principle and action. Although we have comparatively suffered little from divisions, yet differences are prone to widen if allowed to prevail to a great extent in a political party, as is instanced by the recent election in Cali-

Washington Items.

-Gens, Sickles, Sheridan and Hancock will be in Washington this week.

-It is denied by Secretary Stanton's friends that he had any understanding with Gen. Grant about his suspension.

-Senator Buckslew of Pennsylvania and Collector Smythe of New York had a long interview with the President on

-There is a report that Gen. Banks advised Gen. Grant to hold on to the War Office if the President should undertake to remove him.

-A board of Naval officers has been ordered to convene at Annapolis, Sept. 28, to examine the candidates for admission to the Naval Academy.

-The Cabinet meeting on Friday was unusually brief and unimportant. All of the members were present but Gen, Grant and Secretary Browning, the latter being absent from duty.

-Ex-Governor Pickens of South Carolina has been in consultation with the President. He is pleased with Gen. Canby; also thinks South Carolina will send several negroes to Congress.

-The coin in the Treasury is about $99,000,000, of which $14,500,000 is in coin certificates. The amount of currency is $45,000,000, making a total of $144,000,000 now in the Treasury.

-Binckley, who presumes to lecture other people about loyalty, refused to take the oath of loyalty prescribed for government employes in the early part of the War, when he was a clerk in the Land Office.

-It is asserted that the letter of Thad Stevens, in which he said that Congress repudiated the Constitution in Its reconstruction acts, was what both provoked and encouraged the President to his recent demonstrations. -There are rumors of difficulty in Maryland at the coming Constitutional election, in consequence of the efforts being made by a certain class of politicians to induce colored men to insist on the right to vote, but the best information indicates a peaceable election.

-Those who are in the confidence of the President express the opinion freely that Secretary Seward will be removed before the 17th of the present month, the day on which the President visits Antietam. They say that Mr. Johnson has declared this to be his intention, but it has been found impossible to verify the statement, and it is telegraphed for what -The President has decided to suggest to the district military commanders an extension of the time for the correction of and admission to registry, until the first of October, and to fix the first Monday of November for holding the elections, in order to secure uniformity in all the Southern States. No order will be issued, as the law gives commanders discretionary powers.

-The returns at the Treasury on Friday show that that there were but $393, 000,000 of the several issues unconverted. $7,000,000 of which matured in August, the conversion of which expires on the 15th inst.; $136,000,000 mature next June, and the balance sometime in July. The entire short date indebtedness of the government is less than $1,100,000,000 at the beginning of the year. The Secretary considers that the treasury has passed the most critical period.

-The aggregate amount of claims from New England filed in the State Department at Washington for losses by the rebel pirate Alabama is $1,985,175, of which Boston presents $635,186, New Bedford $614.868, and New London $47,-538. Including the losses by the Shenandoah, Florida and Georgia, the I whole amount of the New England claims is $4,607,444, though in many cases claims | 1st prem., D R Way, Landgrove, for the whole value of the vessel and cargo have been entered by only one of her owners, fofficers, or underwriters.

-The Government has received in-Information from the American Legation | 2d | do at Madrid to the effect that the negotiations in progress with the Spanish Government for the purchase by the United States of the Island of Samana, one of the Bahama group, for a naval station, have come to an end. Assistant Secretary Seward visited the island last winter and approved of the site; whereupon the State Department at once entered upon correspondence for its purchase. When Mr, Bancroft was appointed to Berlin last spring he was also requested to go by the way of Madrid, and in connection with Minister Hale, to enter on the negotiation for the purchase of the island. The Spanish Government, after holding the matter under advisement for some time, has declined to entertain a proposition for the sale of the island. The efforts of the government to secure a naval station from the republic of St. Domingo have also failed, and therefore precludes the purchase at all of any site for a naval station in the West Indies.

THE PARDONING BUSINESS.-The functions of the Pardon Bureau of the Attorney General's office in relation to the rebellion have been virtually suspended by the Amnesty Proclamation. The clerical force devoted to that branch of the business is busy in preparing the statement relative to the States of Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama, for the approaching session of Congress. Upward of 18,000 applications for pardon have been lodged in the Attorney General's office. Most of them (embracing persons to whose petition no special significance attaches,) have been granted. Some 500 have been unacted upon. Most of the prominent men of the South have made application, Henry A. Wise, Louis Wigfall and Jefferson Davis are notable exceptions, though the pardon of the latter has been sought by the Legislatures of Mississippi and Georgia and by innumerable petitions. No action has ever been taken on any application made by sheentees like Messrs. Slidell and Brecklaridge, though the latter has himself not sought pardon, but his friends for him.

ENIGRATION TO MISSOURI. - There seems quite a movement, in a number of towns in Massachusetts to Missouri. It is taking the form of organization in colonies. We hear that this is the case in Worcester, Rev. Martin W. Willis, Commissioner of Emigration for Missouri, addressed about 1,000 peopple on the subject of Missouri at Fitchburg, last week. We should be glad to find work and business for all the sons of New England, but we must not fight the inevitable. The truth is we do and can spare 50,000 every year who go West, or somewhere to better their fortunes. We are training men here to go West and occupy positions of honor and credit in that section

FASHIONS,-Mrs. "Jennie June," who writes about the fashions in manifold, sending copies of the same letter to forty or fifty papers in various parts of the country, urges the assembling of a Congress of American women to decide what style of dress American women shall wear. Ten years ago, this writer made the same proposition, and we fancy she will now meet with about the same response,-a silence which does not give consent. The first reason and perhaps the only one needed is that ladies who care especially about the fashion, or who may be said in their own circles to lead the fashion, are not the people to meet in formal convention about anything, and are quite content to follow the modes imported from Paris, "Jennie June" must be content to report the fashions, without having any hand in making them. It will not be possible for her or any enthusiastic reformer to make any innovations. If all the mantua-makers in the United States should form a league only to cut dresses in a certain way, their association would be Root Cutter, Rufus Nutting, Ranbroken up in a day by the arrival in New York of a bellefrom Paris.

A Society for Improvement of Horses.

At a meeting, held at the Brattleboro House, September 12th, 1867, for the purpose of considering the expediency of organizing a society for the improvement of borses in Vermont, Hon. H. G. Root was chosen chairman and Geo. A. Merrill Secretary. Pertinent remarks were made by Hon. T. W. Park and Hon. H: G. Loot of Bennington, Messrs, Griswold of Malvern Farm, Morrisville, L. T. Tucker of Royalton, Col. E. S. Stowell of Cornwall, H. B. Kent of Dorset, Geo. C. Hall of Brattleboro, and Geo. A. Merrill of Rutland. Whatever difference of opinion was expressed as to the best manner of attaining their object, there was but one, as to the importance of its consummation-that Vermont might continue to send forth to her sister States, as she long has, a race of gentlemen's first class roadsters and trotting horses second to none.

It was agreed by all, beneficial as the Vermont State Agricultural Society has proved herself to most of our agricultural interests, and much as the several county societies have, and are doing, for the pecuniary benefit of our farmers. they all fail in giving to us of late years that splendid specimen of the horse, which in the past has given prestige to Vermont as a horse producing State.

It was suggested that the object might be attained by the organization of a soclety, which should, while it is an independent association, act as auxillary to the State society.

After deliberate consideration, and a free interchange of views, it was, on motion of L. T. Tucker, of Royalton, Resolved .- That a committee of three be appointed by the chair, to confer with the officers of the Vermont agricultural society as to the feasibility of merging the interests of the two societies, in holding under their united auspices annual Fairs, it being in no way the object of the new, to jeopardize or predjudice the acknowledged advantages of the old society, but to develope more fully, and perfect the objects of both.

The chair appointed as the committee Hon. T. W. Park, Richard Bradley and George A. Merrill.

A committee was also appointed, who nominated, and the following gentlemen were elected as officers of the new organization.

For President .- Hon, T. W. Park of Bennington.

For Vice Presidents,-Frederick Billings of Woodstock; Richard Bradley of Brattleboro: A. W. Griswold of Morrisville; H. G. Root of Bennington. For Secretary .- Geo. A. Merrill of Rutland. For Treasurer-Henry C Horton of Vergennes.

For Directors .- L. S. Drew, of Burlington; E. S. Stowell of Cornwall; Geo. W. Hendee of Morrisville; Frank Goodhue of Brattleboro; N. T. Sheafe of Derby Line: Thomas Sanders of Brookfield; George C. Hall of Brattleboro; L. T. Tucker of Royalton; Charles Clark of Rutland; H. B. Kent of Dorset; Frederick E. Smith of Montpelier'; L. Brainard, Jr., of St. Albans; E. A. Park of St. Johnsbury.

Oil" has been frequently tested and analyzed by Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer, and in a communication to us, dated July 5, 1867, he says;
"The term "Kerosene' as used by the Downer
Oil Company, applies to the highest grade of Oil only, which our trials show, does not inflame below about 120 degrees Fahrenheit, and carries the assurance of both safety and excellence with it; while the mixed oils are not only unsafe, but in causing accidents, destroy confidence in the safe article for affording light produced by the honest manufacturer."
