

The Palmyra Courier

Friday Morning, August 5, 1870.

Local Intelligence.

Local Briefs.

Stoddard & Strain have a new advertisement in to-day's paper.

Hon. H. K. Jerome has been appointed Notary Public in and for Cayuga county.

A furious rain storm, accompanied by heavy thunder, visited this section Wednesday night.

We regret to learn that Mr. E. J. Pratt, Clerk of the Board of Trustees, has been laid sick for the past week.

Patronize home trade and home industry. This is doing as you would be done by, and will build up place in which you live.

There has been a "let-up" in the heat which has prevailed for the last two months, and we are now enjoying most beautiful summer days.

Mrs. Burbank, a most estimable lady living on Canal street, who has been suffering for many months from consumption, died on Thursday morning of this week.

The wool market is at present dull, although Mr. Charles W. Bennett has bought several lots during the past week.

The market is 35¢ @ 40¢ fine wool, and 40¢ @ 45¢ for coarse.

The "Blue Stockings" of Rochester will play the "Stars" of Palmyra a catch game of base ball on the Wallon lot in this village on Friday afternoon this week.

Considerable fun may be expected.

A fire occurred at Coonville a few days since, by which a dry goods store, owned by Mr. Wickoff, and a cooper owned by Mr. Sawyer, were destroyed.

Loss $3,500, which was most covered by insurance.

Judge Woodruff, presiding at the trial of the United States Court recently held in Canandaigua, decided in favor of the constitutionality of the act of this State allowing towns to aid in the construction of railroads.

The Good Templars of Lyons are organizing for a grand amateur entertainment for the benefit of the Lodge here on Wednesday evening of next week.

Mr. H. W. Belding will accept of thanks for an invitation to be present.

The Newark Courier announces the death of Mr. Charles Whiting, an old and highly respected citizen of that place.

Mr. Whiting died on Sunday morning last week, of a cancer tumor, from which he had suffered internally for many months.

The Grand Illustrations of the Commercial Union of the State of New York was in town last week, and established a Lodge in our village, at a request meeting of which Mr. F. Sawyer was elected Illustrations Chief.

S. Jackson Assistant Chief, H. P. Howles Treasurer, and Wm. F. Moore Secretary.

Our friend Wales, (who, by the way, will be a prominent candidate for the Island on Wednesday, for five days' fishing, Ed. will undoubtedly be much easier to haul out at the Bay than to "bag" an Assembly nomination; but we hope he will be successful in both.

The editor of the Newark Courier, recently purchased a new stove, hat, and makes it the subject of a series of articles in a column, more or less "satirical" in character.

It is a pity that the editor left town, leaving an intimation that he should harden until he had "reached the shores of the Atlantic."

Good-bye, neighbor. We hope the hat, as well as himself, will return safe and sound, for a due amount of recreation.

During the severe thunder storm which prevailed a few evenings since, on the premises of Mr. Robert Chapman, near this village, was struck lightning, and splintered into a hundred pieces, killing four valuable sheep which had sought shelter from storm under the tree.

Mr. Chapman was insured, on buildings and stock, in the "Agriculter's" Company, and his claim was immediately adjusted by the agent, Mr. T. S. Jackson, of this village.

Our genial friend Bates, agent for McKeeholes at this place, with one or two other gentlemen, met with a mishap a few days since. While engaged in painting the north end of the sawy building, which projects over the canal, the scaffold on which they were working collapsed, and the three gentlemen were precipitated to the ground.

It is a pity that the editor left town, leaving an intimation that he should harden until he had "reached the shores of the Atlantic."

LETTERS FROM FELTNEYVILLE.

From our Special Correspondent

THE REPUBLICAN has the following in relation to the new County Clerk's Office: "The Committee appointed by the Board of Supervisors to inquire into the probable cost of a new County Clerk's Office, and to recommend a plan for the same, have not been idle. One of their number has visited other counties, and a plan has been agreed upon for submission which it is believed will meet the views of the Board, and of the people. It contemplates the erection of a substantial, fire-proof building, two stories high, the lower floor to be used by the County Clerk, and the upper by the Board of Supervisors and County Treasurer. The expense of such a building will be something less than $10,000. The committee have also offered several building lots, and will report the price of each to the Board without recommendation. They will call a meeting of the Board within a very short time, when the matter will be disposed of."

The Cludo Times says: "On Friday last week a fearful and probably fatal accident took place in the town of Hudson-on-the-Hudson. Mr. O'Brien, the facts as we learn them, are as follows: Two boys, about fifteen years old, one of them the son of Mr. O'Brien, were engaged in building a raft, and from which they got to scuffling, and by some means, one boy swung his cradle in such a way as to strike young O'Brien across the legs, and knock them from his body. Physicians were immediately summoned, but our informant said, so far as he could ascertain, there were but slight hopes of O'Brien's life."

The same paper gives the following account of a shooting affair: "One day last week, Mr. Abner Wood, who resides about four miles south of this village, was bit with a snake in the all of the month. He was sitting on the piazza in front of his residence, when four boys passed by with guns, and the dog belonging to Mr. Wood began to bark and follow up the boys, who, after passing by the house some four or five rods, stopped, and one of them fired at the dog with the above result. It is needless to say that the dog was not hit, but Mr. Wood was bit on the leg, and he is now suffering from the wound."

The Newark Courier, of last week, has the following particulars of a serious accident which occurred near the depot in that village: "Quite an accident occurred near the depot on Friday afternoon last, and the circumstances, when we consider the consequences were not fatal. Miss Clara Hunt, a young lady residing in the village, was returning home from her school a little north of Newark, and came to the railroad track at the time the 6 o'clock express was passing. For some reason which we have not yet learned, she walked on, pushing her hat on her head, and the approaching train struck her, and she was hurled away from the track, and she was injured. She was taken to the Newark Hospital, and she is now recovering from her wounds. It is a pity that the editor left town, leaving an intimation that he should harden until he had "reached the shores of the Atlantic."

Good-bye, neighbor. We hope the hat, as well as himself, will return safe and sound, for a due amount of recreation.
