Local in the Small.

—Levi Gifford, of Harmony, has harvested about 100 acres of Flax this year.

—Mr. A. F. Taylor, of Fredonia, picked ninety-five bushels of Strawberries from half acre of vines this summer.

—We have received the first number of the "Rural Miscellany," a monthly paper, published by G. R. DEAN at Mayville (Chautauque), and devoted to Agriculture, news and Masonry. We trust that our friend DEAN will make the Rural a success.

—The return game of Base Ball between the Unknowns of this place and the Erie City came off last week, Thursday, on the grounds of the latter at Erie, Pa., resulting in a victory for the Unknowns, by a score of 21 to 18.

—The game of Ball between two chosen names from the Greek and Laddie company was played on the grounds of the Unknowns last Wednesday, resulting in a victory for Loway's mine by a score of 11 to 13. A synopsis of the game, together with the score, will appear next week, it being unavoidably crowded out this issue.

—Our readers must excuse us once more for encroaching on their space with another full page advertisement. There is one way that they can obtain indemnity for us, and that is by calling at 33 Main St., and secure some of the great bargains offered.

—At a Caucus held last Friday evening the following named gentleman were chosen delegates to the County Convention to be held at Mayville, Sept. 24.

G. E. Bishop, H. O. Lakin, O. D. Jones, George Lee, N. A. Arnold, W. M. Smith, Jerome Preston, A. T. Harris, J. B. Maylow, M. W. Sawdew, A. M. Clark, John T. Aldrich.

The following named gentlemen were appointed Town Committee, for the ensuing year: Geo. M. Smith, J. C. Ormer, A. T. Harris, M. W. Sawdew, Naham Arnold, J. C. Ormer, Democrat.

—Many inquiries are made as to why we do not have a Tanners' Club organized. The "Boys in Blue" are doing all the work. Nearly 150 veterans are already enrolled in their ranks, and many applications to join are made by those who, according to their rules, cannot do so. To meet this demand there should be another organization formed at once. Enough will join to form a strong company; if some one will only move in the matter.

—We have been shown a new style of Broom by Mr. J. F. KELLOGG, Esq., which he proposes to manufacture in this place providing that he can receive the necessary amount of encouragement. From a casual inspection we should say that it is a good thing. Mr. KELLOGG, has had a life long experience in this business, and he wishes to locate in this place, forming a stock company with a capital of about $20,000, one fourth of which he will take himself. A manufactory of this kind will employ from fifty to one hundred hands. Mr. KELLOGG, is now engaged in perfecting the organization of this company and we trust that he will receive the encouragement and assistance of all who desire to add to the growth and prosperity of the place. Any one wishing further particulars will enquire of Tom J. C. Jones.

—At the regular meeting of Guiding Star Temple, No. 82, upon the 4th inst., the following officers were installed in the degree of Charity:

A. W. White, W. D. T. Bell, Bowes, D. V. McLean, D. G. S. McLean, D. F. S. A. A. McLean, D. T. G. Appleby, D. Chapman, Dr. James D. Scott, Hattie Laddie, D. G. W. Chris, B. M. Almina Bowen, D. R. H. S. Mary Appleby, D. L. H. H. W. Laddie, P. D. T.

The Lodge is prospering finely, now numbering above 80 members. At a recent picnic this Lodge displayed the finest, full-dress banner in this section. It was painted by L. TIDEMAN, of Jamestown, and cost twenty-six dollars.

Grant and Coffees Club in Blockville.— The Republicans and Union-loving citizens of Blockville called a meeting on the evening of the 7th inst., for the purpose of forming a Grant and Colfax Club. The attendance was large and general good feeling was manifested all the evening. The following officers were chosen:

President—Stephen Tripp, Esq.; Vice-Presidents—Miles Lewis, Alonzo Frank, John F. Phelps, Leander Dean; Secretary—S. J. Green. Noted that the proceedings of the meeting published in the Jamestown Journal. The meeting then received a short but able address and then adjourned. S. J. GREEN, Sec.

KINDLING THE CAMP FIRES OF GRANT.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED IN JAMES TOWN.

Morning Meeting at Jones' Hall.

GEN. HITE ON THE STUMP.

Though tardy in starting, the republicans of this place have done well enough in their first meeting of the campaign to avert a measure for the delay. The first meeting of the campaign was held at Jones' Hall on Saturday evening last and proved a complete success in numbers and spirit. The young republicans of the place, without regard to past differences, united heartily to prepare for the meeting. The cannon was brought out to summon Grant's men, sons de la patrie, and rockets and bonfires illuminated the scene and the band discoursed music. The New National banner of the Grant Club—the handkerchief in the county—was swinging over the street and the front of Jones' Hall was gay with small flags. Inside, the Hall was beautifully decorated. The walls were spangled with the red and white-blue and filled with the resolutions and the historical utterances of Gen. Grant, and other republican war-bells. There, a picture ornamental the center of the Hall and the stage was radiant with "Old Glory" and the name of Grant. The center of the background was occupied by the large and ornate Union banner, belonging to the Grant and COLFAX Club.

At an early hour the Hall was filled with the better and more intelligent portion of our people—including a liberal delegation of our friends—and ordinary intelligence is easily learned, and in the aggregate brings large amounts to this class of persons. These factories are generally large and well built structures fitted with great machinery and everything is done by machine, that is, except the hand labor.

Mr. J. W. BREWER, President of the Club, presided! After a brief campaign song by a quartette of our best gentleman musicians (the Hite of Missouri, was introduced) He created the issue of the day in a novel and forcible manner. He commenced by giving to the very pith of this whole question his question, viz.—Southern agrarianism through negro representation dictated by White votes alone. It is surprising how this question enters into political discussions, the papers and speeches. Yet it is to the heart of the whole question that Hite came.

It was the most unusual and interesting political power in the nation, in view of the South in consequence of the three classes of representation of the people in the South.

The enterprise and business tact of our merchants is perfectly wonderful. They have found that the benefit of that great and most important feature of a successful business, namely, "Advertising" pays. That money spent in that way returns to them increased "an hundred fold," and that the only way to conduct a business successfully is to let the people know what they have got to sell. Mindful of this fact, PROUDFIT &amp; OSMER this week sent a broadside of facts to the houses of over two thousand of the inhabitants of this section, through the medium of the Journal. We entreated for their statements in regard to their stock. In the clothing line their equals cannot be found in Western New York. Their ready made garments are all of their own manufacture, they keep nearly 100 hands constantly employed. In Dry Goods they have a full line of everything pertaining to that trade. No one that visits this place should fail to call at No. 83.

Our Manufacturing Interests—What has been done—What should be done.

Agreeable to notice, a meeting was held at Jones' Hall, Tuesday evening, Sept. 15th, to take into consideration the propriety of establishing a Canoe Seat Chair Factory, in this place. At the house appointed a goodly number of the business men, manufacturers and mechanics of the town were present. The meeting was called to order, W. D. SHAW, Esq., appointed Chairman, and A. M. CLARK, Secretary. At the request of the Chairman, J. W. BAIRD, Esq., was requested to state the objects of the meeting and furnish such statistics as had been collected in regard to the business. He submitted report, the substance of which we give below.

many more enterprises of a similar nature.

There is no reason why at least a dozen such establishments should not be put in successful operation at this place. Our facilities are equal, if not superior, to any town in the State; and if we only use what nature has placed within our reach five years will see us a live, enterprising and thriving city of from ten to fifteen thousand inhabitants.

What we need next—and more than all—is an establishment for the manufacture of farm tools and implements. The need of this is apparent to every one, while the profits of such an establishment could not fail of paying large dividends to the stockholders. We hope to be able to chronicle the fact next week that all the stock, for this first movement in the good cause, has been taken.

Boys in Blue.—

A meeting was held at Jones' Hall, Monday Eve, Sept. 14th, for the purpose of organizing a Canoe Seat Chair Manufacturers of Ticonderoga, Mass., the principal manufacturing town in this line of business in the Eastern States. This village contains about 3000 inhabitants and fourteen chair manufacturers, using about ten millions dollars per annum in wages and employing from 800 to 1000 operators inside the factories, the seat weaving being done by the women and children outside the factories. The annual product of these factories exceeds one million dollars. There is but little other business transacted there than such as directly or indirectly grows out of this kind of manufacturing. Their number is now mainly brought from Vermont by railway, a distance of from one to three hundred miles, at a cost of from $20 to $30 per M. The quality of this timber is very inferior as compared with ours. All of these factories are propelled by steam power.

The operations in these factories are in generally skilled mechanics, but such as are found in all Yankee lands with a foreman who is well posted in all the branches of the business in charge of each department.

Three teams are constantly employed in taking the seat frames to the women and children who wad a circuit of from 16 to 18 miles and returning with the woven seats. The meeting was called to order, Capt. B. F. LOWMEYER appointed Chairman, and C. N. BRUNNENBERG Secy. The object of the meeting were briefly stated by the Chairman, when a motion was made that they proceed to the election of officers. We give below the names of the officers and the list of members who joined at that meeting. From the degree of enthusiasm manifested at that time we do not hesitate in saying that the company will number at least two hundred men within a week.
