THE REPUBLICAN. Local, Literary & Miscellaneous.

WESTFIELD, WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1867

The contract for the improvement of Dunkirk harbor has been let.

The Fall Term of the Westfield 'Academy, commences Monday, the 12th of August, under the charge of Abram Brown, A. B., a graduate of Dartmouth College, as Principal; Mine Alice Choate, the former efficient Preceptress, who has filled that position for the past year so acceptably; and Miss Lucy Washburn, as Assistant. Mr. Brown is highly recommended to the Trustees for his fine scholarship, and also for his successful experience as a Teacher. A Teachers Class will department will remain under the charge of Miss Martha E. Townsend, the former able

Hon. Sextus H. Huegerford, of this village, in his will, gave ten thousand dollars to the Auburn Theological Seminary, to be applied for the benefit of needy students.

A fire occurred in Panama, on Wednes day evening last, burning down the Rock House, and adjoining buildings, and injuring buildings on the opposite corners.

On Saturday night last an oil train took fire just below Brocton, and some five or six hundred barrels of oil were burned, and twenty or more cars. Ties, fences and telegraph poles were burned up for nearly a quarter of a mile. The light was distinctly seen in Westfield.

A burglar entered the house of J. D. Carlisle, in this village, on Friday night last, and took some forty dollars in money, and a coat. The entrance was made by turning ful remembrance. the key in the lock from the outside with nippers, and thus unlocking the door. A draft that was with the money, was left on the doorstep. The work was evidently that Portage St. of adepts. No clue to the burglers.

SHALL WOMEN BE DOCTORS ?-The Herald of Health for August discusses the question, "Shall Women be Doctors?" in an earnest dians. and thoughtful manner. The question is gard to Indians and what is being done to an important one, and every man and woman has an interest in it. The August No. affairs. is also rich with papers from the best writers on topics of interest to all $2 a year; 20 cents a number. Address Miller, Wood & Co. 15 Laight St, New York.

The Westfield Republican says the County Fair this year is in the hands of Fredonia men. So far we were in error regarding it. This fact does not alter the cir cumstances of the mismanagement of it by Westfield people—to which we adhere in spite of the Republican's black guardism.—

Jamestown Journal.

We do not like to engage in a controversy with any one, and much less with one who stubbornly refuses to inform himself; and yet we have the charity to suppose that the Editor of the Journal has been led into his flagrantly unjust attack upon the people of Westfield by giving too willing an ear to some stupid, splenetic individual, who had as little knowledge of the facts as himself. It is a very easy matter to indulge in general charges, but quite another thing to subself credit and the officers of the County Agricultural Society justice by either taking back its charge of mismanagement, or pointing out some acts that reflect upon their honor, and thus enable them to be met.

The August number of "The Riverside Magazine for Young People" has a capital full-page illustration of the old thyme, "As I was going to St. Ives." Among the articles -of which there are a great variety, many of them handsomely illustrated-we notice more of the amusing misadventures of Ainslee and Sinny: "Coast Life in Newfoundland," a series of interesting papers, is continued; Vieux Mustache gives us "Breaking in for a Summer Term;" Jacob Abbott contributes "Plays at a Party;" Mary Lorimer discourses pleasantly from "Among the Trees;" the fine old ballad of "The Heir of Linne" is given, with illustrations; Wm. Wirt Sikes has an article about Lake Superior: the Editor, from his Window-Seat, gossips of adventures in times past, &c., &c. A page of music closes a most excellent number of this popular monthly. More novelties are promised in the Septem-

Hurd & Houghton, Publishers, No. 459 Broome St., New York. $2.50 a year.

The Phrenological Journal for August contains portraits of Maximilian, Juarez, Schuyler Colfax, Thomas Francis Meagher, Hon. Charles A. Shaw, and other distinguished persons, with biographical notices. Also, a view of Omaha City, with an extensive account of that rising city of the West. An unusually excellent number. $3.00 a year, or 30 cents a No. 389 Broadway, New York.

BASE BALL .- A returned match game of base ball was played on the Fair Grounds, Thursday P. M., July 25, between the Clipper B. B. C. and the Chautauquas of Mayville. Seven innings had been played when a heavy shower came up; it being impossible to continue the play, the Umpire called the game.
