STRUCK BY LIGHTSHNO.—During the structure of the conclusion of the playing the score stood as follows: Lorillard 35 day last, the rear of the house occupied by Columbia 18. SPARCE BY LIGHTSHOO—During the severe thunderstorm which prevailed Sturday last, the rear of the house occupied by Mr. Joseph Bure, situated on the corner of Main and Bridge sts., was struck by lightning. The plastering on one of the upper rooms was thrown down and two ladies were stunned. No person was seri-unly intured.

Nor So.—The report which has been going the rounds of the papers to the effect that one of the Filkins brothers, who have been confined in the Kingston Jail on the charge of being concerned in the drowning of Daniel LeRoy, had made a full confession, here we found the part of the page of the page of the page to the page of the page

RUMORED.—That a discussion is pending on the relative merits of the steamboats Chauncey Vibbard and the Mary Powell in regard to speed and that the friends of the former offer to wager $10,000 that their Aworties is the fostest steamer in the world. while the friends of the Mary Powell are equally anxious to back the Powell in doub-le that amount. We go "much" on the le that amount. We go "much" on the Powell believ.ng that there is not anything that floats that can equal her in point of

New Firm in an Old Stand.—Mr. Rem-see Varick and Mr. Henry Pierce, the latter late a clerk in Payne & Powkr's Drug Store, have cetered into a co-parteen-lip for the purpose of carrying on the Drug and Medi-cine business at the Store formerly occupied by Blika Trivet, 300 Main-S. Both gen-tlemen are well known to the citizens of Pouncheenile, and both start business for Mowing Machine Accident. In the Press of Saturday, we made mention of an accident that occurred to Faul C. Upton, of Stanfordville, on the Thursday previous. We have since learned these additional particulars.

particulars: He was mowing with a machine when he fell off, and getting caught in the machinery, was dragged about afteen feet. When taken out, the cords and veins of his arm were found cau and the flesh lacerated. His wounds were dressed, and he is improving.—Piess.

SERIOUS EFFECTS OF SATURDAY'S STORM —From different parts of the country come reports of disasters by Saturday's stoim. As has been the case with every storm or thunder shower this season, the lightning and hail accompaning has been severe. On the threaten the atternoon of the day above mentioned contents consisting of a large amount of grain and law enrively destroyed. A horse belonging to Mr. Dunn was also struck by the electric fluid and instantly killed. Ad-joining the barn was another outlionse which the fluines soon enveloped and des-troyed. It is perhaps a little singular that every storm is also accompanied by high winds.

A PICKPOCKET RELEASED ON BAIL.— Daniel Noble, alias "James Ogle," one of the most notorious and successful pickpock the country, who was arrested a few since in Albany on a charge of at-ing to pick the pocket of Commissa-meral Palmer, has been released on He was taken before Judge Peckha of that city on a writ of habeas corpus Fri-day afternoon, and admitted to bail in the sum of $2,500 to appear at the next Coun-ty Court to be held in Dutchess county viduals became his bondsmen. It is said, but with how much truth we callot state, that the friends of the prisoner offered five hundred dollars to procure his release on bail. Whether his bondsmen received this

SERIOUR FIRE.—The Middletown Mercu y states that on the morning of Thurs lay of last week, a house and wagon, enaker's and blacksmith's shops, owned by Mr. Wil-tian Lattemore, in the village of Deaton, Orange county, were destroyed by fire. The fire broke out about two o'clock in the morning—cause unknown, but it is unpected that it was the work of an incend ary. The wagon maker's and blacksmith's shop were only recently built. We hear the loss roughly estimated at $3,020.—There was no insurance on the property.
