

New Barber Shop.—The ancient poets, perceiving that the hair was the most sublime portion of the human construction, distinguished the gods by their ambrosial locks. At this day such a distinction would be unnecessary, for the artistic hand of Howard makes even the most refractory locks to become "ambrosial curls," scarce exceeded by those of Juno. Give him a call, just opposite Hodge's Hotel, Mill street, and you will cling to him forever and a day.

NOVEL RACE.—A novel race indeed is reported to come off on the Pavilion course tomorrow. It is thus described: An individual is to draw a sixty pound sulky around the track, and another man is to drive a horse to sulky around. When the man who draws the sulky starts from the stand, the other commences to drink a quart of beer, and cannot start his horse till the quart is all drunk up—then his nag goes, and the one who comes in ahead takes the spoons.

PLUMS.—We extend our thanks to two amiable young ladies for the present of a basket of delicious egg plums, among the largest and most luscious we have ever seen. When we find that the finer portion of creation can so kindly "remember the printer," by such a graceful expression of good will, our labors are rendered lighter, and we are all the more anxious to give them an agreeable paper in return. May they live a thousand years, and always be young and charming as they now are!

Yz who listen with credulity to the whispers of vanity, and pursue with eagerness the phantoms of elegance; who expect to realize from the lips of beauty the promises of delightful hope, and that the uncertainties of to-day will be exchanged for the triumph of tomorrow, go with entire faith to the sales-rooms of Messrs. J. & D. H. Decker, if you would furnish your house in the highest style and order, and save money by buying your goods at home, and all will be well.

REAL ESTATE.—L. C. Gardner, Esq., has sold his residence in this village to Mr. W. C. Hurd, for $2,100. We would call the attention of housekeepers to his advertisement in another column, offering to sell off his household furniture cheap. We are happy to add, that Mr. G. will still continue among us, doing business as usual at his office in Beard Block. He has an extensive agency in several prominent life, fire and accident companies, and possesses all the good qualities requisite in a successful lawyer and business man.

THE LECTURE.—The lecture on Equal Suffrage, by Mrs. E. A. Kingsbury, of Philadelphia, on Tuesday evening, at Beard Hall, was well attended by respectable citizens who were annoyed by the rowdiness of some young ruffians, who wished to exhibit their smartness, and should have been kicked into the street. The speaker was listened to with much attention, and exhibited marked talent, setting forth strong arguments in favor of her subject. Her lecture at Manlius the evening previous is well spoken of.

SECURITY AND INDEMNITY.—We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Broughton & Babcock, general insurance agents, No. 1 Malcolm Block, Syracuse. The record of the companies represented by Broughton & Babcock show a period of twenty-five years of unequalled success, during which time millions of dollars have passed through their hands in payment of losses, all of which speak volumes in their favor.

BASE BALL.—A match game between the "Unfortunates," of this village, and the "Independents," of Manlius, comes off on Saturday afternoon next, on the grounds of the "F. B. B. C." We trust these hitherto "unfortunates" may be more "fortunate—tunate—date—ate."

The following is a synopsis of a match game between Ocean Club, of North Manlius, and Chittenango Club, played the other day:

SECURITY AND INDEMNITY INSURANCE IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

FIRE, LIFE, MARINE & ACCIDENT.

Broughton & Babcock, No. 1 Malcolm Block, Syracuse, N. Y. Bankruptcy in high places and the crash of unsound principles should suggest the importance of discrimination in matters of INSURANCE. The Companies represented by BROUGHTON & BABCOCK point to their record of nearly Twenty five years of stable success—to the prompt payment of Millions of Dollars of Losses, and their past character for fair and honorable dealing, as to the pledges of their ability to meet the coming crisis. Cash Assets over Thirty Million Dollars.

Large Losses have not depleted their Treasury—numerous disasters have not imperiled their existence. Let those who WILL trust to the tender mercies of the untried, the inexperienced and the ephemeral. Let those who PREFER depend upon fictitious or unpaid capital. The lesson of the hour and the desire for safety will not fail to impress PRUDENT MEN with the necessity of STRONG INDEMNITY, while the destruction by FIRE of nearly $60,000,000 during the past year in the United States, must render its importance apparent to all classes. EVERY PROPERTY HOLDER SHOULD INSURE! This is an axiom which the Portland Calamity has demonstrated in letters of fire, and the security guaranteed by this Agency for the future is not less certain than the indemnity it has afforded in the past.

AN ACT to provide for submitting to the people the question, "Shall there be a Convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same?" Passed March 19, 1866.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows: SECTION 1.
