

Onondaga Gazette.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

Baldwinsville, July 10, 1867.

ADDENDA.—It will be remembered that in last week's issue of the Gazette, we noticed the fact that Dr. W. W. Perkins when but seventeen years old, cut and corded in three days, ten cords of green beach wood.

ON A VISIT.—Mr. F. R. Lasher and lady (late Miss Isadore Goble) residents of Wango, Kansas, are here on a visit to Mrs. Lasher's parents.

WENT TO NEW YORK.—Mr. H. K. Cornell, our popular freight agent here, has gone to New York.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT.—The highway leading from this village to Van Buren Centre, has been straightened between Lewis and E. L. Talmage's making this portion of the street look very much better.

LOST.—In this village, between the lot and lot of July, a Gold Cuff Button with the initials, W. C. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same with M. Donovan, at Skinner's Store.

A MUDDY PROSPECT.—We notice that a part of the highway just south of the Sorrel Hill School House, to the distance we should judge of over one hundred rods, has been newly laid out, so that when the contemplated improvement is completed, said road will be straight from A. Crum's barn (formerly G. W. Hall's) across to the high ground opposite.

A PROMISING HOPE.—Mr. L. D. Hall, a farmer residing some three miles south-west of our village, has a hop yard of several acres, and his vines this year, promise a very large yield.

A FINE MANSION.—Isaiah Harrington a farmer residing in the Sorrel Hill neighborhood, of Van Buren, is building for himself a splendid brick house.

DIED.—Mr. Solomon S. Palmer, for many years a resident of the town of Lyander, died at Spring Valley, Rockland Co. N. Y., June 5th 1867, of inflammation of the lungs.

A SERRANDE AND A SCARE.—A few evenings since, some jolly chaps came into the street on which our residence is located and favored the residents thereof with a tin trumpet concert with a tin pan and gimpwood accompaniment.

ABSENT.—W. F. Morris, one of the active partners in the Morris Ax and Edge Tool Company, is now absent in the Western part of the State on a business tour.

TEMPERANCE SPOKES FOR CHILDREN.—Messrs. T. S. Arthur and Son of 869 and 811 Chestnut, Philadelphia, have just published eight little books with the above title printed and illustrated and put up in neat little packets containing one each, in price 30 cents a packet.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF BALDWINVILLE ACADEMY.—The summer term of Baldwinville Academy closed last week on Wednesday—the vacation to continue for eight weeks.
