Delachaise grounds in the upper part of the city”	Empire (New Orleans) 77 Louisiana (New Orleans) 64 (DP (1) & PSOT (2): “On Wednesday, 14th inst., the beautiful and airy grounds which have been devoted during the present season to the healthy sports of the field—the Delachaise property, near Louisiana Avenue—presented a most animated and enlivening appearance. The occasion was the commencement of a match of base ball between the Louisiana B. B. C., and the Empires, on a challenge of the latter. The arrangements for the accommodation of visitors were most ample in every respect. Everything was done to make them pleased with their visit to the ground, and to make them wish to come again. Altogether, there was a large and delighted concourse of citizens upon the field. ... Although it was getting towards dusk, it was agreed to play a sixth before suspending the match, and at the end of that innings, the Empire led the Louisianians twelve runs. / Three more innings, on each side, remain to be played, in this so far admirably-contested game, which will be resumed next Monday afternoon, at half past 3 o'clock.”) (NYC - “This being the first match that has been played between two clubs in that city, it created an unusual excitement among field sporters.” After 6 innings “when

And the attendance, though not as large as the crowds we have witnessed at the Delachaise ground, was quite liberal. The companies had tents for their guests, and also for toilette and refreshment purposes. The playing was extremely spirited, and of the most pleasing features of the day was the cordial spirit displayed between the members of the contesting clubs. [Lengthy description of post-game festivities follows.] The clubs, wuth their guests, then formed in procession, with the stars and stripes in advance, and marched down to the United States Hotel, on Elysian Fields street, where they took a parting imbibation, and then the Southerns marched up home, wearing their laurels with laudable	(1) “City Intelligence: Field Sports,” NOB, vol. 32, no. 11,481 [new series—vol. 32] (1 Oct 1859), p. 1, col. 5 (2) “City Intelligence: Fine Game of Base Ball,” NOB, vol. 32, no. 11,482 [new series—vol. 17] (3 Oct 1859), p. 1, col. 4
