The Prospect.

Never since the birth of the Republican party were the prospects for a full and complete victory over their opponents better than they are at the present time. From all portions of the country, we have the most cheering indications, -not only from Republican sources, but from the fearful and frightened party which advocates the doctrines of Johnson and his advisers.

The hope of the opposition was that the course of Congress at its last session would cause a falling off in its support by the people, and gain for them in the fall elections an addition to their strength in that body by "swinging around the circle" to their schismatic doctrines of some "doubtful districts." The hopes for such additional strength is, since the Vermont and Maine elections, abandoned by their most sanguine leaders, and these, with the prominent journals of their party, are now compelled to admit that the Republicans will, by the October and November elections, add to their working majority in Congress, thus effectually and overwhelmingly crush the purposes of Andy Johnson and the hopes of his support-

The reception given the President and the civillan portion of his party on their recent electioneering raid, by the veomanry of the Central and Western States, must have tended to convince that official that his policy of revolutionizing the Republican party,-the party which successfully brought the country through a flery ordeal of four years of bloody war,-was a suicidal one, and that their confidence was reposed not in the acts of an accidental President, but in the deliberations of Congress-the Congress of the peopleand in its deliberations only. These evidences of displeasure had hardly reached the baffled ears of the President when the lightning's flash over the telegraph wires conveyed him the uncheering news that the masses of Vermont and Maine had reverberated at the ballot-box, by crushing majorities for Congress and its acts, the opinions expressed by the people which he had just heard, and on Tuesday next, the copper-Johnson party will receive even a more crushing blow than any which it has yet received since the passage of the Freedmen's Bureau and Civil Rights bills. On that day the four great States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa hold their annual elections, and the friends of freedom in these States are confident that they will strike even more decisive blows at the usurper and his coadjutors than did their brethren in Vermont and Maine.

But the final blow is reserved for the sturdy Unionists of New York, Illinois, Michigan, Massachusetts and other States in November, and we have assurance from them that sun-down on the day of election in those States will witness the full and final overthrow in all States north of the old Mason and Dixon's line of "my policy" and its adhe-

Rear Admiral Francis H. Gregory. United States Navy, died very suddenly, at one o'clock Thursday morning, in Brooklyn. He was one of the most distinguished onicers of the navy, and was at the time of his death superintendent of the iron-clads and steam vessels constructing in New York.

THE AMERICAN BIBLE UNION .- The seventeenth annual meeting of the American Bible Union (Baptist) was held in New York on Wednesday. During the past year the receipts were $10,-112, and the outlay $42,844. Rev. Dr. Armitage made a long argument, in which he endeavored to prove that the word "immerse" should be used in the Scritures instead of "baptize," It was stated in the annual report that the improvements in the revised New Testament count by thousands, and sometimes there are from twenty to forty on a page. The number of copies of the Scripture issued was 545,974.

HARD ON "MY POLICY."-R. A. Conner, a soldler who was wounded and captured at the battle of Chicamauga, and suffered all the horrors of rebel prison pens, except death, having been removed from the office of Postmaster at North Vernon, Jennings county, Ind., and a copperhead supporter of "my policy" put in his place, Mr. Conner publishes sixteen reasons why he was removed, among which are the following: "I am removed because I do not support the Democratic party, one of whom tried a second time to shoot me in Smith's building at Richmond, I am removed because I do not-will not support the Democratic party which endeavored to freeze me to death during the winter of '63-4, at Danville, Va. I am removed because I do not support the infernal and treasonable Democratic party which came near starving me at Charleston, S. C. I am removed because I do not endorse the hellish party which tortured me with hunger for six months at Andersonville, Ga. I am removed because I do not support the assassin's President.

HON. HORAGE MAYNARD, of Tennessee. gives us what we are happy in thinking, with a cotemporary, is "The Word for the Hour," as follows:

"Let our laws and institutions speak not of white men, not of red men, not of black men, not of men of any race or complexion; but like the laws of God, the ten commandments, and the Lord's

GARIBALDI IN DEST .- Garibaldi has issued a circular stating that he has run in debt to the amount of some $21,000 in undertaking his expedition for the liberation of Italy, and says that though the persons to whom he is indebted do not press their demands, they nevertheless will be greatly troubled and some of them ruined by their non-payment. He therefore appeals to the public for the amount, to the disgrace of the Italian government, which ought to assume the paltry debt.

Look Upon This Picture and on This."

The strength of the report of the military commission appointed by Gen. Sheridan to investigate the causes of the New Orleans massacre, lies less in its direct statements, strong and startling as they are, than in the accumulative force of the evidence it presents. The report is an uninterrupted chain of facts and logic which is jujured by quotation. We give, however for general instruction, a few of the instances in which Mr. Johnson's defence of the rioters is contradicted by the commission.

Perhaps if you had a word or two on the subject of New Orleans, you might an derstand four allow if the house here in the cause of the riot at New Orleans, perhaps you would not be so prompt to calling out "New Orleans. If you will take up the riot at New Orleans and trace it back to its source, or to its immediate cause, you will find out who was reponsible for the blood that was shed there. If you will find that the riot at New Orleans and trace it back to its source, or to its immediate cause, you will find out who was reponsible for the blood that was shed there if you will find that the riot at New Orleans and trace it back to its source, or to its immediate cause, you will find out who was reponsible for the blood that was shed there if you will find that the riot at New Orleans and trace it back to its source, or to its immediate cause of the reason the commodities of the landical Congress, you will find that the riot at New Orleans and trace it back to its source, or to its immediate canse of the reason there are the board will be a to be reason the reason there are of the mob acting in support and in convert with the police, and the reason there are on the reason there are not the reason there are on the reason there are not the reason the reason the reason there are not the reason there are not the reason the r made, or take the fact, on Friday and Saturday before the convention met you will then find the speaches were made incendiary in character exciting that portion of the population (the negro population) to arm themselves and preparate for the precented pro-

You will also find that the convention was to superced the recognized by the government of the United States, and every man engaged in that rebellion, in that convention, with the intention of superseding and upper convention, which had been recognized by the government, which had been recognized by the courts as government of the Uni- | would have I ted States, I say he was a nized by the

So much for the New Orleans riot, and there was the cause and the origin of the blood that was shed, and every drop of blood that was shed, and every drop of blood that was shed rests upon their skirts, and they are responsible for it.

The Board will state it as their tirm conviction that but for the declaration of martial law, and the presence of the troups, fire and bloodshed would have raced throughout the night in all negro quarters of the city, and night in all negro quar Northern men would nave been at the mercy of the mob. The con-servators of the peace being for the time the instigators of violence, nothing would have re mained but in arming for self defense, and a scene might have en the history of the age

MEXICAN BONDS .- The Secretary of the Mexican Legation at Washington cautions the public against receiving any bonds purporting to be issued in this country in behalf of Mexico, unless they are lapproved by the Mexican Minister, No other bonds will be recognized by the Mexican Government. This is, of course, meant to hit Santa Anna's reported loan.

SPECIMENS OF JOHNSON CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS .- In the Third Pennsylvania district, the Charles Buckwalter who is now running for Congress on the regular democratic ticket is the same who said at a mass meeting in Philadelphia in

"I would sooner shake hands with that noble patriot Clement L. Vallandigham, than with that black hearted traitor Abraham Lincoln."

-The democratic candidate in the Ninth Ohio district is one T. P. Finefrock, who is on record as having publicly declared in 1862 :-

"The war was brought on by dblack abolitionists-it was a d- black abolition war-the Northern soldiers were a pack of bloodhounds, chasing down and murdering the people of the South-the South was right, and the North was intruding on the rights of the

-A while ago Mr. Louis Schueler, of Canton, Obio, sent a hundred dollars to Henry A. Wise for the Orphan Asylum at Richmond. None had a right to find halt with his charity, but the donor blazoned his benevolence in a card, in which he glorified himself by declaring that he had-

THE THIRD DISTRICT .- An attempt is being made in the third congressional district to induce the two republican candidates, Baxter and Hoyt, to withdraw and allow a new candidate to be nominated at the convention to be held at Hyde Park next Tuesday. J. S. Adams, Levi Underwood and Judge Aldis are proposed for the nomination.

ACCIDENT. - Chester R. Gaines of Guilford, Vt., on the 21st ult., whilst repairing a cross-gun or bow and arrow, the arrow recoiled and made a large wound through the coats of the eye, letting out the contents into his hand. He now lies quite sick in consequence of the wounds.

DUMMERSTON ITEMS .- On the morning of the 26th ult., the down express train ran into a flock of sheep, near the depot, belonging to Mr. Gipson and killing 13

-The house of John Miller was entered, a few nights ago, by some one in search of plunder, entering through a back window. Mr. Miller hearing a noise in the kitchen, got up, took his revolver, and went into the room. The thief heard the movement and retreated towards the door, and made good his es-

BURNED TO DEATH .- A child named Alma Wright, aged about five years, was burned to death in Bakersfield, on the evening of Sept. 13th. The mother of the child went out into the garden, leaving the little girl alone, and when she returned to the house found her enveloped in flames, her clothes having caught fire from the stove, it is supposed. The mother embraced the child to smother the flames, when her own clothing caught, and she was badly, if not fatally, burned. The child lived only eleven

PRENTICE ON VERMONT, - Speaking of Vermont's vote, Prentice says : "We expect nothing from Vermont but wool." Such things have been heard of as "going for wool and coming home shorn."

DROWNED .- Mr. H. Houghton of Grafton was drowned on the morning of the 27th ult., at his mill, whither he had gone before breakfast. His hat was found in the mill and his body in the pond. It is not known whether the occurrence was accidental or intentional.

METHODIST SEMINARY .- The Methodists have located their "Vermont Conference Seminary and Female College" at Montpelier. Montpeller raised $20,-500 to secure the school there. It is now proposed to raise $100,000 more to build and endow the Seminary.

THE STATE REPORM SCHOOL,-There are now in the school six boys, from 12 to 15 years old, all or nearly all committed for theft. One is a colored boy. All apparently are as bright as the average of boys. They are in school four hours a day, under the care and instruction of a most excellent teacher, Miss Burnham, of Thetford. They have their regular work, mainly on the farm, under the eye of the superintendent. All seem to be happy, showing no disposition to escape. The commissioner, Rev. Mr. Pease, is unwearied, and full of zeal in his work.

VALUABLE Cow .- Levi Bishop of Woodstock has a two year old heifer which gave twenty-five pounds of milk per day during the month of July, the cream from which made a pound of butter per day. This is doing pretty EMIGRANTS .- Arrangements are in progress for bringing out 1,000 Norwegians to settle in Northern New York, between Lake Champlain and Ogdensburgh, A few emigrants from that country have already settled there.

INJURED BY A THRESHING MACHINE. Mr. Lyman Curler who, in company with Mr. H. Hitchcock, was engaged in threshing grain for Mr. Reuben Wilkins of Ferrisburgh on Tuesday last, met with a serious injury to his left hand. The machine which had been running, had nearly stopped, when he incautiously placed his hand on the end of the cylinder. The momentum was sufficient to badly mangle and crush the bones of three fingers; the first finger to the first joint, the second to a little below the first joint and the third to the second joint. The thumb and little finger escaped mutilation.

ROBBERY IN VERGENNES .- The Vergennes Vermonter contains the following account of a robbery perpetrated in that place during the fair of the Champlain Valley Agricultural Society: "It appears that Emerson R. Place, Willard Ray and a Mr. Crossman of Hinesburgh, who were here attending the fair, had a team in H. Adams' stable on Thursday evening last, and in company visited the stable, when Charles Price, Jr., a well known character of this place, stepped up to them and asked them what they had been mocking him for. They severally denied the charge, and he left, but presently returned and after a few words proceeded to knock down Ray and violently assaulted Place, from whom he stole his watch and fled. He was subsequently arrested and brought before Justice J. E. Roberts, indentified by all the parties, and fined in both cases of assault to the extent of the Justices jurisdiction, which is $20 and costs for each offence, making nearly $100 in all. On the charge of robbery he was committed in default of $200 bonds, for trial at the next Addison county court in December. While in charge of officer Hayes he escaped and took refuge in Capt. Bradbury's house on Elbow street, frightening the inmates not a little. He was re-taken, however, and is now safely lodged in Middlebury jail. His case is a warning to many others in the city."

BY TELEGRAPH,

[Special to the Rutland Herald.] The Addison County Fair.

MIDDLEBURY, Oct. 3. The total number of entries is about nine hundred. Floral Hall is filled to overflowing with every conceivable article which fancy or necessity could devise. Paintings excellent, embroidery's fine, flowers abundant and well arranged, wax flowers, and hair work beautiful.

The show of sheep is as good as anticipated-of American merinos superior to any ever held here-other varieties almost entirely wanting.

Of cattle there is not a large number, but the quality of those exhibited is excellent.

The exhibition of swine is large in number and excellent in quality.

The show of horses is not equal to expectation but very fair.

Mechanics Hall was per recelling one of the most attractive features of the show. containing a large variety of apples. grapes, years, vegetables & - XE.

According to programme, a grand cavalcada of horses came off on the track. There was a good show of single driving teams. In the afternoon occurred the following races:

The 1st race was for a purse of $80, mile heats best 2 in ... for mares and geldings, for which there were three entries, viz.

O. A. Sheldon as, gray horse, drawn Geo. Hammond ns. h. g. Jack 1, 1, E. S. Stowell ns. h. g. Jackson 2, 2, Time 2.54c 2.55.

The second race was for a premium of $50, mile heats best 2 in 3, for horses 1 years old and under. The following is a summary:

A. F Sheldon ns. b. g. John Ward. B. J. Myrick as, b. m. Dora Myrick. Peter Loraine ns. b. m. Loraine mare. John Ring as b. s. Columbus Jr.

This was a very spirited race, though the contest was evidently between "Dora Myrick" and "Columbus Jr." The first heat was made in 2.56, though for some reason best known to themselves the judges declared the heat a dood one. The two next heats were won in fine style by "Dora Myrick," "Columbus" coming in second. Time 2.55; 2.57.

A large crowd is in attendance, and though some of the arrangements connected with the exhibition are imperfect, everything is passing off pleasantly.

The annual address will be delivered to morrow afternoon by Rev. Dr. Kitchel, President of Middlebury College, K.

At 11 a, m. occurred Dr. Kitchell's address, which was interesting and pithy, He expressed an earnest sympathy with the county of his adoption, alluded to the good breeds of sheep and horses exhibited, and showed the Importance of preventing any deterioration in the excellent breed of them which Vermont has always produced. He closed by alluding to his misfortune in not being born in Vermont, though it was no fault of his, and said that the wrong thus done him could only be repaired by the unanimous vote of the county that he be adoped as a native born citizen of Addison County. The vote was given with

After the address Prof. Bond performed some interesting feats on the tight rope, which drew out much applause from the vast audience.

At 2 p. m, the races commenced, the first contest being for the society's purse of $100, open to all stallions, mile heats, best 2 in 3. The following is a summary:

H DeLong, ns. b. s. Ethan Allen, Jr., 1.1. John Ring, ns. b. s. Columbus Jr., 2, 2, H. C. Sessions, ns. br. s. Black Boy, 3. 3. The race was closely contested between Ethan Allen, Jr., and Columbus, but

Ethan succeeded in winning the race in two straight heats. Time, 2:55; 2:55. The second race was for a citizens' premium of $150, open to all horses far and near, mile heats, best 3 in 5, four to enter, three to start. The following entries were made:

Henry DeLong as, b, s. Ethau Allen, Jr. O. A. Sheldon ns. br. m. Dora Myrick. A. P. Bague ns. b. s. Green Mountain. A. D. Holley ns. br. g. Fear Not.

This race was won in three straight heats by "Fear Not." Time not given, The third race was a running contest, for a purse of $30, open to all running horses, single dash of a half mile, best 2 in 3. The entries were . Joseph Battell's b. m. Virginia.

John Moore's br. m. Belle,

Virginia took the first heat with ease, and at its conclusion the owner of Belle declared that his mare was not in proper condition to run and withdrew her, leaving Virginia to go around the track alone, which she did and won the race. Time, 0.58; 1:00.

The music for the Fair has been furnished by the Keene Cornet Band, for whose services the Society is much indebted for many pleasantries connected with the exhibition.

A spirised meeting of the Wool Growers' Association was held at the Court House last evening, and able addresses were made by Henry Clark, Esq., Victor Wright, Esq., Hon, John W. Stewart, Ira W. Clark, Esq., Hon, S. P. Nash, Judge Cook and others

The Fair which has just been brought to a close has been a most decided success, and the friends of agriculture in Addison County are highly present with the result.

[For the above dis, often, and previous ones published by us concerning the Addison County Fair, we are independ to Mr. Knapp, senior estima of the Middle. bury Register, who will account our sincere thanks for these and semilar lavors. -En
